

Numerology - 2020 from a New Perspective

Above is a diagram of 'The Tetractys' - a mystical symbol attributed to Pythagoras, a Greek philosopher and the father of modern Numerology (born 570 BC). It is said that by pondering this symbol, the journey of 'the energy of spirit' through time and space may be revealed.

This symbol represents the numbers from 1 to 20, which gives us the opportunity to view the journey from year 2000 to year 2020 in a whole new way, with numbers representing the energy of spirit as it evolves along its journey.

Viewing this Tetractys in terms of years, we begin with the year 2000 at the top of a new Tetractys, representing the beginning of a new cycle. The year 2000 signifies the end of more than 1900 years with a 1 at the front of the year and during most of this period, everyone would have had a 1 in their chart. The 1 represents the 'unstoppable generator' bursting with ambitious energy, this is symbolised by the element fire, and is regarded as the more masculine energy. With the strong influence of 1 energy, leaders during this time period tended to be more single minded and goal orientated.

With the year 2000, for the first time we had a 2 in the front of the year meaning new characteristics began to emerge, and by approximately 2100 everyone on this planet will have at least one 2 in their chart. The 2 energy is a completely different to the 1 energy, it is dominated by the Moon and is symbolised by the element water. The 2 is a more feminine, sensitive energy which is deeply aware of duality and has the characteristics of the diplomat, the facilitator and the peace maker. The Tetractys illustrates how with the 2 energy we see separation for the first time; this is something we are witnessing as people choose to separate themselves out into their own 'technology bubbles'. Separating ourselves allows time and space for us to reflect, potentially enabling us to observe more from a broader perspective and so rediscover the underlying unity behind everything. With the strong influence of 2 energy, we are also witnessing new leaders emerge, who see both sides of a situation and who focus on empathy, understanding and co-operation. This 2 energy can potentially lead to the 3 of creativity, turning raw feelings into great ideas at a higher level of development.

The zero in numerology represents the potential, the space, the no-thing that is eternal and from which everything flows. The zero also represents the lens or 'the all seeing eye' as it contains all that is past and the possibilities of new creation. This lens can magnify the qualities of numbers with a zero behind them such as the 1 in 31/4 ( $30 + 1 = 31/4$ ), the 1 in this position can represent tremendous will driving forward. Finally, the zero embodies the state before movement, capturing stillness and encouraging reflection of all these possibilities before a new cycle begins.

In the year 2000 we have three zeros and a great potential for creativity which only happens at the beginning of each millennium.

The triangle at the top of the Tetractys (1, 2 and 3) represents 'the Trinity' with masculine/physical 1 energy, working with the more feminine/emotional/sensitive 2 energy to create new ideas and to bring in new thinking (3).

The third row of the Tetraktys illustrates a big jump from the 3 (creating) to the 4 (building something solid based on the new thinking of the 3). The 4 is symbolised by the Earth element, it works by developing endurance and the ability to overcome obstacles. The 5 at the centre is symbolised by the air element and represents the mind, moving from what has been built towards the possibility of what can become and communicating this with enthusiasm. The 5 touches and influences every other number from 1 to 10 as they surround it. The 6 represents 'as far as you can go in nature' and a decision which needs to be made - whether to stay in your comfort zone, taking responsibility for the harmony and perfection of your home as well as the local community, or to move to the more spiritual realm on the next level.

The Tetraktys illustrates how, like with the 3 and the 4, there is a big jump from the 6 to the 7. The third line of the Tetraktys (4, 5 and 6) can be regarded as focussing on creating something physical from the idea or potential creativity represented by the 3.

The fourth line of the Tetraktys can be regarded as representing external movement:

- 7 - 'Walking the talk' translating 6's ideal vision into something new and tangible.
- 8 - 'Perfection reworked' through constant movement, spirit and matter working together.
- 9 - 'The teacher emerges' extracting the wisdom and moving beyond itself in detachment.
- 10/ 1 - Accumulating the information from experiences thus far so that they may be taken to another sphere of experience.

The bottom triangle (11 to 20) is a reflection of the top triangle (1 to 10) 'as above so below' and can represent us moving from 'learner drivers' experiencing these energies for the first time, to us 'driving on our own'.

The first reflected line (11 to 14) moves in the opposite direction to its reflection (7 to 10). Whereas the line 7 to 10 represents external movement, its reflection, line 11 to 14 represents internal movement and is about fully digesting all that has been experienced in the previous cycle (1 to 10).

The individual values on the first reflected line represent:

- 11/ 2 - A channel with the space and potential to be inspired to think in new ways.
- 12/ 3 - Looking from a new perspective so new ideas (3) can come from the higher 2 of love/wisdom.
- 13/ 4 - Transformation and rebirth as creativity (3) breaks through existing structures (4).
- 14/ 5 - Breaking out of the box (4) to find freedom (5), so that new structures may emerge.

There is then another big jump from 14/ 5 to 15/ 6, as we move from inner movement to movement in the physical realm.

The individual values on the second reflected line represent:

- 15/ 6 - A decision to be made as new ideas are explored, understood and formulated.
- 16/ 7 - A reflection of the mind (the 5 in the above triangle) and a representation of the mind in action; ideally moving in the direction of spirit (7) with great focus on responsibility towards others (6) and less focus on the self (1).

17/ 8 - Connecting with spirit (7), seeking out the truth and finding the treasure within.

Another big jump from 17/ 8 to 18/ 9 brings us to the bottom triangle (18, 19 and 20), which is a reflection of the top triangle (1, 2 and 3). This can be viewed as 'the Trinity in action' and an opportunity for us to see how we are using the incredible potential from 2000, to look at everything in new ways and so to create in new ways.

The individual values in this reflected triangle represent:

18/ 9 - Re-evaluating (8) and 'recycling' all that has gone before and extracting its wisdom.

19/ 10/ 1 - The correct use of power, ideally a new beginning with great focus on helping humanity (9) and less focus on the self (1).

20/ 2 - A period of gestation and reflection (2), looking again at the potential (0) before moving onto the next cycle or Tetraktys.

It is interesting that we have been stopped in our tracks and forced to reflect more deeply at this time in the year 2020, when there is still great potential for fundamental change.

Looking more closely at the year 2020, the challenge or the inner work to be done this year is represented by the 4 (2 + 2). This inner work potentially manifests on the outside with 22/ 4 energy (20 + 2) representing the master builder, building from a position of intense sensitivity and fragility (2). This has the potential to bring in new structures (4) and to build them with love (2).

April of this year, being the 4th month, may have embodied the heart of this challenge, bringing things to a head. As we are now in May, the 5th month, things are starting to change and many of us are starting to think in new ways.

As we move towards the next 20 year cycle and the Tetraktys returns to 1 (2021) and we move further away from the pure potential of 2000. With each decade building on the previous one, this course seems to become more set and options appear more limited.

From this perspective 2020 can be viewed as the trajectory for the future direction, the new structure onto and into which we build moving forward.

A re-occurring theme here is 26/ 8 representing 'Lord Karma', meaning great responsibility (6) born of emotion (20) and a massive 'wake-up call'. This theme is encouraging us to change patterns that would otherwise go on forever (8).

There is also a great deal born of emotion (20). This suggests that in amongst the great sensitivity and fragility is an opportunity to change our ways, to move away from the selfish goal orientated 1 towards the love/wisdom of the 2.

Separating ourselves allows time and space for us to reflect, potentially enabling us to observe more from a broader perspective and so rediscover the underlying unity behind everything.

To change the world, we must first change ourselves!
